Transform your Data with
PREDICTIVEHR's Development Lab

Were you struggling to get the most data out of your HR system? Can't seem to get your HR data in order? Are you getting frustrated over not having your HR reports in line? There is an easier way to get the most out of your data. With PREDICTIVEHR's Development Lab we do all the background work for you to write your reports easily.
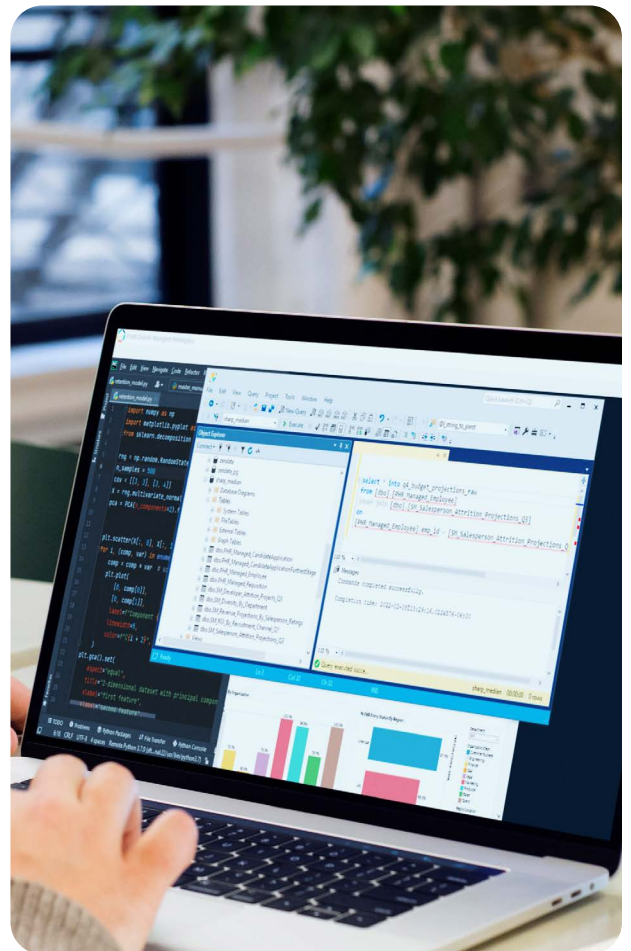

Create Your Own
Customized Reports

With Development Lab, PREDICTIVEHR is the perfect place for you to create your reports. We created a normalized data model that allows you to upload your customized data easily. You may even combine it without aggregated, normalized data.

PREDICTIVEHR allows you to seamlessly script your queries and extract the data you need for your reports!

INDUSTRY-BEST REPORTS
AND DASHBOARDS

Unsure where to start? We included our industry-best reports and dashboards for you to use, so you can get started right away.

Get Creative With Your Data

Development Lab is the best tool for you to get creative with your data! Simply upload your own customized data sets and combine them with PREDICTIVEHR's aggregated, normalized data model. Extract the right data of your database sandbox, or use a tool such as Tableau, to visualize your data.
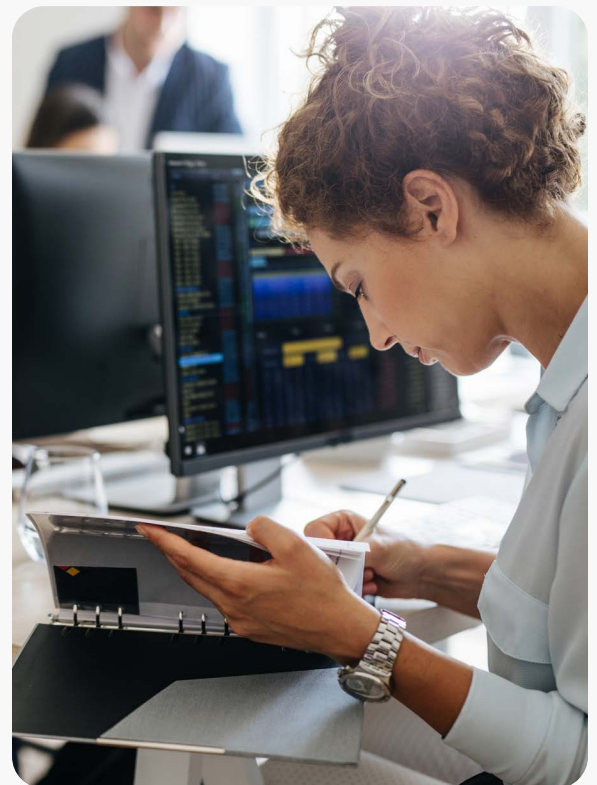

Stop struggling with customizing your reports and let our Development Lab help you out!

Designed Specifically for Your Business

We understand that you want the most out of your data! Development Lab takes all the hassle and guesswork from your process. Use our patent-pending engine that will sift through the raw data for you and then create clean, aggravated data models for your business.

Additionally, we understand how important it is to keep your data under lock and key. That is why we offer a secure-based portal for your reports to live in. You may publish and share all your reports from here.

The platform offers the ability to combine PREDICTIVEHR's cleaned and standardized talent data with other datasets to unlock deep insights into your unique business.
